AT CHICAGO TOMORROW

St. Louis, May 13.—The fans of St. Louis now admit freely that the Athletics this year look better than they have ever. Tompkins took up his new position, pointing swimming motions, and was 30, which gave her 98 with the one stroke added. Her elaborate, who was next to finish, Miss Caverly's card was:

Net 87 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13
Out 3 2 1 5 4 6 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12

Mrs. J. Wallace Turnbull, of the Cricket Club, was next to finish, requiring 101 strokes. She was out in 46 and back in 52, but had a handicap of 8, with a net score of 93.

Mrs. Florence McNeely, of Merion, was 49-57 for a total of 106, with a handicap of 5, and in ninth place.

Mrs. Ronald L. Hedges, now abroad to play in the British championship, was Geist cup sixtieth year winner. Mrs. J. This is the second year to have been open to competition, and Mrs. Turnbull is the only one to have her name on the present trophy.

In yesterday's game the Athletics beat the former, who placed better baseball. They outhit St. Louis 11 to 9, and the run score was 8 to 6. Mack was forced to use Harris, Keefe and Rummell in order to get away with the game, but he handled his hurlers well, his usual perfect style, and this coupled with the fact that he didn't waste a base hit accounted for their victory. At one of the stages of the game the Mack's led by 6-2, then they temporarily lost their grip on the situation. However, with the score tied at 6-6, they snapped out of their lethargy and won the two winning runs in the eighth inning.

After this afternoon's game the Athletics go to Chicago for four games with the White Sox.
